Preface

“A book is a device to ignite the imagination”

—Alan Bennett

Beyond territories, for structuring businesses and advocating research, the use of intellectual property protection has been a subject of debate. It has been recognised worldwide that intellectual property protection serves to provide a filip to knowledge based economies. In the era of liberalisation and globalisation, the need for cross border trade and services has further stimulated more research in this discipline. At times where nations across are forcing each other to bring in stringent norms for the protection of intellectual property, it has become imperative to understand the nitty gritty of the subject at national level.

The present book provides its readers an insight of the realm of intellectual property protection in India by building on the understanding through a series of multiple choice questions. It intrigues the readers to fathom the profundity of the law related to protection of intellectual property.

This book will prove useful to students, faculty, researchers, people appearing for Patent Agent Examination, All India Bar Examination and all those who wish to develop an understanding on the law related to protection of intellectual property.

Every created work is a result of fortitude and perseverance. On one hand, family is the biggest source of courage. Determination, on the other hand, comes from cognitive learning.

At the outset, I acknowledge my family for being supportive in the present work. It is on their courage that I blindly follow the unbeaten path. I draw my patience to continue in my endeavours from my nephews and niece and I would fail in my duties if I won't acknowledge them for their assistance.

I would not be at parity if I fail to show my gratitude towards my un-named friends. They have on each occasion set aims for me which I have tried to fulfil. The professors at my alma mater also deserve my sincere thanks for instilling in me the meaning of hope, faith and belief. My colleagues at the Bar also deserve a special mention for dutifully accepting me with my vices.

I would also like to acknowledge Eastern Book Company for readily accepting the manuscript and putting their team on the task of getting things in order. The editors of Eastern Book Company deserve equal acknowledgement for shaping the present work.

Last but not the least, I thank the almighty. For you, a thousand times over....
